LADY'S NOTES.

Miss Laura Ross returned on Wednesday from a visit in Warren county.

The Red Men have dug a well for benefit of those having their business interrupted.

R. J. Merker, of Cleveland, has been some weeks putting up a new system of electric clocks for the watchmen over Warren County.

Bushnell & Gleason's shops, which were greatly improved over the old ones. They were finished yesterday and worked to the satisfaction of the firm. This [Friday] morning Mr. Merker left for his home in Cleveland.

Fred J. Miller will leave on Friday for Batavia, New York, where he will work manufacturing. He will not move his home from here for some time at least.

Lewis Lauver has returned from an extended visit east.

In the notes of this morning's edition appropriation spoken of for fire department should have read twenty-five hundred instead of twenty-five thousand dollars.

St. Paul Church Choir.

All do not seem to be lovely with the Paul church choir. Last Sunday the choir under Mr. Charles Carrington, were so that their services were no longer required. The reason was given that the church could not afford to pay them.

Mr. Carrington and daughter, Mrs. Bushong, have been engaged by the church, and will sing there next Sunday.

Frank Goleen, of New York, is located at the Arcade.

The policy for selling a cigarette to a person under sixteen years of age in Hampshire has been made $20 for each offense.

An agitation to change the name of Methodist Episcopal church south is like never thought, in a choice of Episcopalian and Methodist.

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

Richard McBreen was fined $40 and costs for violating the Sunday ordinance.

There is strong talk of a permanent republican organization in this city similar to the Lincoln club of Cincinnati.

Quite a number of our citizens left for Cardington this morning, to attend the Morrow county fair, now in progress there.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Samuel Smith, an old resident in this county, was buried yesterday from her home in Courtsville, about thirteen miles southwest of this city.

The night watchman of the Springfield Tri-Cycle Co., detected some young boys stealing a wagon from the shop, and gave chase, capturing two of them and two escaping. No arrests.

C. J. Bartholomew, who has been repairing the telephone lines at Washington C. H., has placed on exhibition at C. H. Pierce's bookstore a piece of bark with a common white straw driven into it by the cyclone.

A large car, loaded with coal, stuck in the mud by the Bee Line track yesterday afternoon, and was released from its strong hold just about five minutes before a train came along, or there would likely have been a smashup.

Officers Foster and Furniss, of the night patrol force, went up in the country this morning on a little fishing tour. They returned this afternoon with sixteen fine speckled trout. They were caught in a private pond.

The Salvation Army open their new barracks, at Crystal hall, on Friday evening, Oct. 2. Capt. Rainer and commanding staff of southern Ohio division are expected to be present. A small silver offering will be taken at the door.

The new ten cent special delivery system went into operation today. Four letters bearing the stamp were received at the Springfield postoffice, and stamp clerk Will Cunnell reports the sale of forty of the stamps at his window. This is a pretty good start.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ogilvie, an elderly lady, residing with her daughter, Mrs. E. S. S. Rouse, 109 South Factory street, fell upon a stone pavement, adjacent to the house, this morning, and seriously injured her shoulder. The physician has not yet decided the extent of her injuries.

A telephone message was received at the patrol house about ten o'clock last night that the railroad men at the C. C. & I. round house had a lot of tramps locked up in the freight car in which they were sleeping. The wagon went out but in some way the tramps had gotten out and made their escape.

The township trustees of Springfield were unable to learn the name or residence of the man whose body was found at the side of the Little Miami track Tuesday morning. A Wednesday evening his body was buried in the village cemetery. The officials are disposed to think the man was from Springfield, but some point in that direction.

A. L. Lesmer, of Lesmer & Son, has returned from New York and the east, where he has been making purchases of clothing for extensive Springfield business. Mr. Lesmer says there is a regular boom on east. Every merchant has his hands full, all factories and mills are running full time and business men are feeling more hopeful than for several years. His purchases are just beginning to arrive.

There is exhibited in the window of Barr's bookstore a very pretty piece of decorative painting—a screen of three panels. The center is a group of hollyhocks. A vine on the left is just such as one might hanging from the back porch of a farm home on a warm September day. The third panel has an autumn-touched branch of Virginia creeper. It is the work of Miss Kaufman, the talented teacher of painting and drawing, who has lately moved to this city.

Some time ago a gas well was discovered about 300 yards above the slab dam, at Middletown, Ohio, and the excitement was tense. Sunday a party of prominent Middletown business men, P. J. Sorg, C. F. Gundert and others, went up in a boat. Since discovery the well had been fitted with hosehead and pipe, and some of the poisonous gas, which exploded, the boat sustained over-turning the excursionists' boat. Damage except some very wet store clothes. The well will be developed sure, but by is not yet certain.

FORAKER AND HOADLY.

Finally Squared off at a Small Hotel. Captain Bushnell Pronounces the Business "Closed Out."

A Columbus special to the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says:

The republican state committee have been unable to smoke Hoadly out of his hole. His only valiant governor clings to Leonard's close-tails with a deathlike grip. Among the democrats here there is a feeling of great mortification, not unmixed with contempt, for Hoadly, for declining to accept Foraker's challenge unless he could have Leonard's assistance. Indeed, the common expression is that Hoadly is a coward. The democrats, however, and as Foraker challenged Hoadly, and Hoadly refused to accept unless he was allowed the assistance of Leonard, Foraker has the right to demand that the governor share his time with his assistant, but Hoadly has refused to debate with Foraker even on those terms.

Seeing that efforts to make Hoadly come out of his ambuscade behind Leonard were unavailing, Captain Bushnell, chairman of the republican committee, has abandoned the hopeless attempt, as the following letter will show:

OHIO REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ROOMS,
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 30.

Hon. Thomas F. Powell, chairman state democratic executive committee.

SIR:—The honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 29th. In reply, would say we challenged Governor Hoadly to joint debate with Judge Foraker, which you did not accept. We accepted the challenge you sent without qualification. If you met along the Governor Hoadly insisted that he must have the help of Dr. Leonard. We stated in our communication of the 28th the terms on which Governor Hoadly might bring Dr. Leonard into the discussion. As you have refused to accept the terms, the communications, which were simply that Governor Hoadly should share equally his time with Dr. Leonard, we have nothing more to submit, and now close this correspondence, and in doing so suggest that after the occurrence at Paulding, on the 23d inst., Governor Hoadly's plea for Dr. Leonard's assistance, your denial of an alliance and your talk about false pretenses and dodging need no answer from us. Yours, truly

A. S. BURNELL, Chairman.

The republican committee have plainly and absolutely demonstrated, by the correspondence which has been going on since last Saturday, not only that Hoadly is afraid to debate with Foraker, but that the politician prohibition party, led by Leonard, is nothing but what the newspapers have all already charged, namely, an annex to the democratic party. This conclusion is given emphatically the fact that when Leonard was here, a day or two ago, General Powell, chairman of the democratic state committee, held a conference with him.

THE 10TH AND 17TH BATTERIES.

Reunion at G. A. R. Hall—Roster—Hours of Meeting.

The 10th and 17th Ohio batteries are holding their reunion in the G. A. R. hall this afternoon. Many of the "boys" are here already and the reunion promises to be one of unusual interest. The meeting of the occasion will be held on Friday night, when it may be expected that a general good time will be had. The many letters already received from the prominent men of the state indicate something of the high regard in which these batteries are held. The boys are welcome to the Champion city.

The 10th and 17th Ohio batteries belong to the 13th army corps, and Capt. Blount at Lieut. Rice formerly belonged to the 10th battery, hence the friendship between the two batteries.

The preliminaries and general handshaking take place this afternoon, and the general business tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. At the latter meeting the permanent officers will be elected.

ROSTER.

The following arrivals are reported: Capt. A. H. Mattox, Cincinnati; Lieut. Frank Houghton, Columbus; Chas. Buck, Xenia; Geo. Jeffries, Cincinnati; Wm. Juppela, Cincinnati; Henry F. Crozier, Washington, D. C.; Johnson F. Funk, Dayton; David Stace, Red Lion; Christ Chund, Dayton; Joseph Roberts, Dayton; Chas. Wentz, South Charleston; Cal. Gregg, Sidney; Joseph Swallow, New Orleans; John Osborn, Plaquemine; Wm. Venzel, Clark; J. H. R. Prutz, Clark; Emmau Metzler, Trenton; Levi and Herman Vaudrick, Vienna.

Republican Meetings.

On Saturday evening, Gen. J. A. Beaver of Penn., so well remembered here for eloquent presentation of the tariff question last year, and the eloquent Irish orator, A. T. Miller, of Columbus, one of the most eloquent campaign orators of the state, will speak at the wigwam.

On Friday evening of next week, Gen. Ruter, P. Kennedy, candidate for lieutenant governor, will be at the wigwam. His hosts of friends will hail this announcement with great satisfaction and give him the hearty reception which he so richly deserves.

Jonathan Donnell's Funeral.

The sad ending of Jonathan Donnell's coming so suddenly upon his friends and neighbors, was a shock to the people of this city and vicinity where he has been so long and favorably known all his life long. His funeral this afternoon at his late residence was conducted by Rev. J. L. Rodgers of the Presbyterian church. The funeral cortege that followed his remains to Greenwood was one of the largest that occurred in this city for some time, evincing the respect for the deceased and sympathy for the family.

Senators at Trenton.

Yesterday Warren Grant, of the springfield village of Trenton, was in Springfield with a great sensation under his hat, which gradually leaked out as Warren circulated the city; and the general threat, so to speak, of Grant's trouble was, according to his statement that a prominent person in Trenton, who in high position had displaced Grant, was in lawless relations with his (Grant's) wife. This is the continuation of an old quarrel there are probably two sides to the matter.

Fourth Ward Republicans.

Judge John C. Miller and Thos. J. Price will address the republicans of the ward this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the large place, corner of East and Mount streets. Everybody invited.

Adventist Camp Meeting.

The little cotton city on the fair ground is growing in size every hour, and large additions will be made to it today. Every train brings a company to swell the number of campers. The white tents among the green trees present a beautiful appearance. The camp is laid off in avenues, while the large pavilion, children's tent, reception tent for ladies with children, and reporters' tent, form a group at one end of the encampment. A light shower last night merely laid the dust, but in no way interfered with the comfort of those on the ground.

Eld. Rupert, from Kentucky, and Eld. Van Horn, of Michigan, are expected to reach the ground today, and Eld. Caffee, of West Virginia, will be here tomorrow.

The first meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The weather is all that could be asked for, and it is earnestly hoped that it may continue thus favorable to the close of the meetings. Delegates from all parts of the state are present, and a large number is expected today. The Adventists have held about fifty different camp meetings this season, and taken all together, it has been one of the most successful years in their history. The public are cordially invited to attend the meetings free of charge.

A Brace of Accidents.

Harvey Moore, a farmer, while cutting corn yesterday afternoon, laid the knife aside and cut a long and deep gash in his knee. Drs. Batterson and Welsh were called at, and bandaged the knee up so that it was possible for him to return to his work.

A somewhat more serious accident happened to a young fellow named Neal Long, carpenter by trade. Long was chopping a piece of wood with a very sharp hatchet when the wood fell and the hatchet entered Long's knee and made a deep cut, going to the bone. Drs. Austin and Hodson performed the surgical work.

Charles G. Fischer, of Cincinnati, is at the Arcade.

Constructed of heavy chilled iron plate, and betw self-locking, it is the only vault in the world tha is absolutely proof against grave robbers indured and recommended by Undertakers, Cem tery Associations and leading citizens and divines everywhere. The sacred bodies of our beloved dea otherwise liable to be torn from their graves by merciless hands, ruthlessly mutilated and mock the subjects of the rude and ghastly jests of bruti grave robbers—are afforded complete protection within the secure environments of the Boyd Grave Vault. Every Cemetery, however well guarded is likely to be secretly invaded and robbed of re cently interred bodies. Remembering that the Boyd Grave Vault provides the only effectual se curity against this desecration, is there any won der that thousands are in use all over the country? Kept in stock and for sale by all lea ing undertakers. Manufactured by
